

Finding Money for Health Equity

Wednesday, October 10, 2018

8:30AM –12:00PM

Public Safety Building
2100 MLK Jr. Way
Multi-Purpose Room
Berkeley, CA

AGENDA

- 8:30      Welcome from our Host – *City of Berkeley
- 10:15      Presentation: MTC’s Means Tested Fare Pilot Program – *Anne Richman, and Sara Barz, MTC
- Program Overview
  - Current State of Program Development
- 10:30      Discussion and Feedback on Program Design – *Lysa Hale, Sara Barz, and Judis Santos, MTC, and Emmett Nelson, SFMTA
- Enrollment Process, Including Roles for Public Health
  - Eligibility Requirements, Including Roles for Public Health
  - Evaluation of Desired Outcomes, Including Health Equity and Quality of Life Considerations
- 11:30      Open Discussion – “Big Picture” Discussion on Program

11:55

Closing and Next Steps

- Three Options for Continued Involvement

Public Safety Building

Wednesday, October 10, 2018

8:30AM –12:00PM

Public Safety Building
2100 MLK Jr. Way
Multi-Purpose Room
Berkeley, CA

AGENDA

8:30 Welcome from our Host – City of Berkeley

Introduction – BARHI

Session Overview – ID Course Objectives

Overview of Fund Development

Cast Study: Alameda County's Fund Development Office (Pilot)

Grant Writing 101 Presentation

Collaborative Fund Development and Building Collaborative Partnerships

Workshop a Project (time permitting)

1130 Conclusion- Overview Highlights and next steps

1. Welcome and Message from our Host – City of Berkeley
2. Introduction - BARHII
3. Session Overview – ID Course Objectives
4. Overview of Fund Development
5. Cast Study: Alameda County’s Fund Development Office (Pilot)
6. Grant Writing 101 Presentation
7. Collaborative Fund Development and Building Collaborative Partnerships
8. Workshop a Project (time permitting)
9. Conclusion, Overview Highlights and Wrap