Special Feedback Session on BARHII's Health Equity Analysis of CASA's Regional Housing Compact

Invited Speakers: CASA Equity Kitchen Cabinet Core Team (Mashael Majid, Urban Habitat; Sam Tepperman-Gelfant and Shajuti Hossain, Public Advocates; Pedro Galvao, Nonprofit Housing Association of Northern California, and Ain Bailey, Great Communities Collaborative/San Francisco Foundation)

Please join BARHII and members of the CASA Equity Kitchen Cabinet to:

- Learn about CASA, the regional committee to address the housing crises.
- Learn what is being proposed as part of the draft CASA compact.
- Shape BARHII's health equity analysis of the CASA compact. This is a key opportunity to shape BARHII's strategy. No housing expertise required. We need the best thinking from across health department roles.

More Info:

CASA is the regional committee focused on housing Protection, Preservation, and Production to address the needs of our population today and tomorrow in the Bay Area. This September 2018, the committee released a draft proposal, the CASA Compact, which bring perspectives from regional agencies, communities, cities, developers, and non-profit organizations.

This is a timely session to bring the public health perspective to inform the final approval of the housing regional proposals. Public health departments have been providing substantial insights to reduce displacement, racial segregation, and support health equity.
